PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1918

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Private Douglas Clay, of Camp Zachary Taylor, who has been at home on a furlough visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Clay, has returned to camp. Private Clay is a member of the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Mr. Ed. R. Eales, of Paris, until recently traveling salesman for the Arm & Hammer brand of soda, who recently resigned his position to enlist in Uncle Sam's service, left Wednesday morning for Camp Zachary Taylor, where he will go into active training.

Corporal Russell Caldwell, of Millersburg, who is a member of the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, at Camp Zachary Taylor, near Louisville, spent this week at home in Millersburg, on a furlough, as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caldwell.

Miss Edith Hanna, of Lexington, who is one of the popular trained nurses with the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, has returned to Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia, to resume her duties. She will join Dr. Barrow's Unit upon sailing for France. Miss Hanna is a sister of Mrs. Elbridge Snapp, of Paris.

Private Lawrence Hill came in Wednesday on a furlough from Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hill. Private Hill is a member of Co. B, 113th Battalion, U. S. Signal Corps, composed mainly of Kentucky boys, Co. B. being largely recruited from Lexington, Paris and other Central Kentucky towns.

Sergeant Luther Collins, who has been a guest of relatives in Paris and the county for several days, left last night for his new post of duty at Camp Sherman, at Montgomery, Alabama. Sergeant Collins will enter the aviation branch of the service. He has a fine record, and Bourbon County is proud of him as a fine representative of the county's young manhood.

Major Richard ("Tal") Clarke son of Mrs. Julia Clarke, who has been on special duty with the American forces in the Philippines for several years, has been relieved and ordered to the United States for army service. Maj. Clarke will arrive in San Francisco this week, and report for duty.

RED CROSS DOG INNOCENT CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

The Belgian police dog which was purchased at the Red Cross auction sale in this city some days ago, by Mr. Charlton Clay, and presented to Miss Elizabeth Steele, was the innocent cause of what may be trouble in the future for the young woman and others.

The dog showed signs of being sick and was being treated for an infection of the ear by Dr. H. M. Hamilton. While Miss Steele and her uncle, Mr. J. Hal Woodford, were holding the dog, the animal in some way scratched both on the hand. In struggling with the dog Dr. Hamilton also received scratches on the hand. An examination was made by local physicians, who suspecting the possible presence of rabies, had the dog killed. His head has been sent to the Pasteur Institute, at Bowling Green, where an investigation revealed the presence of rabies germs. Miss Steele, Mr. Woodford and Dr. Hamilton were advised by the physicians to take the Pasteur treatment, which they will do at once.

'NOTHER BOOTLEGGER

Patrolman Geo. M. Hill arrested George Washington, a colored resident of Ruckerville at midnight as he alighted from the twelve o'clock car from Lexington. Washington had a large sack which looked rather suspicious to the patrolman. When the package was opened it was found to contain a large quantity of booze than even George Washington could consume in a given time. Washington was placed in jail. In Police Court he was assessed a fine of $50 and given a twenty-days' jail sentence by Police Judge Ernest Martin. The liquor was confiscated.

"The Great Lakes Bulletin," published at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station near Chicago, is one of the most interesting and spiciest of the camp papers received. This is the station where the famous Sousa band, which gave a concert here last Monday night, was trained, and the Bulletin tells of an appropriation of $40,000 made recently with which to purchase instruments for the band.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN NEARING CLOSE

The campaign in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan in this county, which has been in progress since last Saturday, is rapidly drawing to a close, and the prediction is freely made that when time is called Saturday night Bourbon county will have oversubscribed its allotment of nearly $400,000. The responses to the solicitations have been coming in rapidly, and in no case has there been a direct refusal to contribute to the fund.

The Women's Committee of the Third Liberty Loan in this county has practically closed their part of the campaign, having raised a total of $222,800. The campaign has been vigorously prosecuted by the members of the committee and their co-workers, under the able direction of Miss Kate Alexander, Chairman. A committee of workers took up the work of the campaign in every precinct in the county and carried it through to a successful conclusion.

The highest amount of Liberty Bonds taken by any individual was $30,000, and the lowest $50. Many of the laboring class bought a $50 bond, and children in some instances even emptied their savings banks and contributed to the sum total. Several subscriptions were made by colored men and women in amounts of $50 to $100.

On Wednesday the men of the county began their drive, and will carry it on through to-morrow, when at the mass meeting to be held in the court house, the final chapter in the Third Liberty Loan campaign will be written in dollars and cents.

As a fitting climax to the campaign to-morrow is to be made a day that will go down in history as one of the most momentous in the life of the city. A big parade, headed by the I. O. O. F. Boys' Band from Lexington, will be held, and after an open air concert in front of the court house by the Boys' Band, a monster mass meeting will be held in the court house at 3:00 o'clock. The following program will be carried out:

2:15 p. m.—Parade by I. O. O. F. Band, led by Mayor January and city officials.
2:30 p. m.—Open-air concert at court house by I. O. O. F. Band.
3:00 p. m.—Speaking in court room.

National Anthem—Community Chorus.

Invocation—Rev. G. R. Combs.
Song—Community Chorus.
Address—J. R. Bush, (Chairman of Speakers' Bureau.)
Band—"Old Kentucky Home."
Address—J. Will Stoll, (Chairman of Liberty Loan District.)
Band—"Dixie."
Address—Rev. Dr. Richard Wilkinson.

America—Community Chorus.
In order to give everyone a chance to attend the mass meeting and hear the speeches and music, Mayor E. B. January has issued the following proclamation asking the merchants and business men of the city to close their places of business from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock, inclusive, to-morrow afternoon. It is hoped that the closing may be general so that every business house in the city may have its employees there. The mere announcement of an address by Rev. Dr. Wilkinson should be sufficient to pack the Circuit Court room from window to wall. The proclamation is as follows:

"PROCLAMATION:
"I, E. B. January, Mayor of the City of Paris, do respectfully request that all the business houses of this city be closed on Saturday, April 13, 1918, from the hour of 3:00 p. m. until 5:00 p. m. in order that the public in general may devote their interest and attention to the speeches which will be made during the above mentioned hours at the court house, and to attend the meeting held at the above mentioned place, in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan Campaign.

"E. B. JANUARY,
"Mayor of the City of Paris."
"April 12, 1918."

UNIFORM RANK K. P. GIVES SOCIAL SESSION.

Members of the A. J. Lovely Company, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and a large number of guests, including wives, sisters, daughters and sweethearts, gathered in a most enjoyable social session at the lodge room Wednesday night. Refreshments of a most tempting variety were served during the evening. Addresses were made by members of the order. The "welcome" sign stayed up until the last guest had departed, and everyone carried home a distinct remembrance of an evening delightfully spent.

PARIS MAN IN LEXINGTON ERUPTIVE CAMP.

Two cases of smallpox have been reported to the City Health Officer in Lexington, one of them, William Parker, being a resident of Paris. The men are being taken care of on the Lyle farm near Lexington, awaiting the completion of the new Eruptive Hospital.

BOX SOCIAL AT LETTON SCHOOL HOUSE.

The pupils of the Letton School, of which Miss Fay McWhorter is teacher, will give a "box social" at the school building to-night, (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. There will be enough enjoyment for all to make the evening a pleasurable one.

UPKEEPING OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

Dear Mr. President:—I beg to hand you herewith memoranda and letters relating to street-railway and other local public utilities furnishing light, heat and power, which I have been asked to bring to your attention by a committee representing public utility interests.

These papers indicate the existence of genuine apprehension regarding the adequacy under present conditions of the services and rates of local public utilities. The view is expressed that increased wages and the high cost of essential materials and supplies have affected them as they have affected everybody else, and that untied effort will be necessary in order to meet alike the requirements for service and the corporate financial needs upon which that service depends.

As Secretary of the Treasury, I must take official notice of these matters. It is obvious that every part of our industrial and economical life should be maintained at its maximum strength in order that each may contribute in the fullest measure to the vigorous prosecution of the war.

Our local public utilities must not be permitted to become weakened. The transportation of workers to and from our vital industries and the health and comfort of our citizens in their homes are dependent upon them and the necessary power to drive many of our war industries and many other industries essential to the war is produced by them. It may be that here and there, because of the prominence given to less important interests immediately at hand, State and local authorities do not always appreciate the close connection between the soundness and efficiency of these local utilities and the national strength and vigor, and do not resort with sufficient promptness to the call for remedial measures. In such cases I am confident that all such State and local authorities will respond promptly to the national needs when the matter is fairly and properly brought before them.

Our public-service utilities are closely connected with and are an essential part of our preparations for and successful prosecution of the war, and the unfavorable tendencies which the accompanying papers reveal may most effectively be checked, wherever they may be found to exist, and the needed relief obtained, only by prompt action on the part of the respective local authorities.

I earnestly hope that you may feel justified in expressing the conviction that the vital part which the public utilities companies represent in the life and war-making energy of the nation ought to receive fair and just recognition by State and local authorities.

Cordially yours,
W. G. McADOO.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Plans are being drawn for the erection of a modern up-to-date store room for Mr. B. F. Judy, in North Middletown, on the lot recently purchased by him from the Rice heirs, at the corner of Main and College streets.

Harris & Speakes sold at public auction Tuesday two cottages on Clifton avenue belonging to Mrs. Nettie Hibler, for $2,060; the purchaser being Mr. L. C. Bell.

The public sale Tuesday of stock, crop, farming implements, etc., belonging to Mr. Wm. H. Whaley, held on the home place at Maple Lawn, on the Jackstown pike, attracted a large crowd. Mules, ponies, cows, cattle and hogs went under the hammer, and all things considered, brought good prices. The sale was conducted by Auctioneer George D. Speakes and Auctioneer C. M. Vanhook. The following is a partial report of the sale:

Fresh milk cows, with calves by their side, sold from $70 to $160 per head; calves, $20 to $45 per head; heifers, $54.50 to $61 per head; thirty select 550-pound cattle, $63 per head; bulls, $90 to $115 per head; $85 to $105 per head; sows and pigs, $64 to $75 per head; farming implements sold at good prices; twenty-one shoats brought $20 per head, and 40 shoats were sold for $31 per head.

FATHERS' AND SONS' BANQUET

Hon. Claude M. Thomas, of Paris, will preside at the Fathers' and Sons' banquet to be given in the Y. M. C. A. building in this city on next Monday, April 15, at six o'clock p. m. Arrangements are being made for one hundred and fifty men and boys to dine and "talk over things" interesting to a man and his boy. The occasion will also honor the boys who have gone with the colors, their mothers coming to represent them. Hon. Harry V. McChesney will deliver the principal address of the evening. He is known as one of the ablest speakers in the State.

Fifty cents per plate will be charged and tickets are being sold in pairs. The Y. M. C. A. will provide any man with a "temporary son." Tickets are being sold by the Boy Scouts or may be reserved by telephoning the Y. M. C. A.

EXEMPTION BOARD WANTS FOUR OFFICIALS ISSUE WARNING TO IDLING CLASS.

The Bourbon County Board of Exemption has received a call from the Selective Service Department of the Adjutant-General's office at Frankfort asking that this county furnish four young men for special service in the United States army as automobile drivers and mechanics, blacksmiths, carpenters, gunsmiths, sheet metal workers, or other mechanical duties in the service. They are to report at Indianapolis, Ind.

If no men present themselves as volunteers to-day the Exemption Board will select four young men from the draft list for this county in sequence of order from Class A-1 to take the training. Only white men who have completed at least the eighth grade of a grammar school education and qualified physically for general military service, are to be taken. The Board will be in session at their headquarters in the court house to-day to receive and examine the men.

THE COMMUNITY CHORUS.

A movement has been started to get all the singers in this city into one compact organization, to be known as "The Community Chorus." This chorus is to be composed of vocalists who will be willing to give their time and talents to patriotic calls.

The organization of the Community Chorus was effected at a meeting held at the Baptist church on Tuesday night, with a membership of more than one hundred. Meetings will be held at the Baptist church each Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The chorus will be under the direction of Mr. A. L. Boatright. Mrs. Macie White Fithian was selected as Chairman of the Chorus. It is hoped that the membership will grow until every man or woman in the county who has a good singing voice and is willing to devote a portion of his or her time to this patriotic work, will become enrolled as a member.

If you can help your Government and do it by singing, that is one kind of service. If you can carry a tune and want to learn the songs the soldier boys are singing, come to the Baptist church in this city Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, and you will receive a hearty welcome.

TO ATTEND AGENTS' MEETING IN LOUISVILLE.

General Agent W. V. Shaw and Chief Clerk John J. McCarthy, of the Paris office, are in Louisville to-day attending a meeting of the agents and accounting departments of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. Conditions arising from Government control and the war have necessitated a general revision of rates and readjustment of traffic, which is the principal object of the conference to-day.

IN LINE WITH THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST VAGRANTS AND IDLERS WHICH IS BEING WAGED IN ALMOST EVERY CITY IN KENTUCKY, MAYOR E. B. JANUARY AND CHIEF OF POLICE FRED LINK ARE GIVING PUBLICITY THROUGH THE PRESS OF THIS CITY TO THE FOLLOWING WARNING, WHICH IT WILL BE WELL FOR THE IDLERS TO READ, AND READING, HEED:

"Paris, Ky., April 12, 1918.
"All able-bodied men and women, both white and colored, in this city, are hereby warned and notified by this means that they are being closely watched by the authorities, and that loafing and idleness will not be permitted at this time.

"At the last session of the Kentucky Legislature a law was passed compelling every able-bodied person to work at least thirty-six hours each week. This law will be strictly enforced, without regard to who it hits, even if the offenders have to be sent to the city rock quarry to do their bit.

"At this time, when the whole world is at war, and America is being looked to for food and munitions of war to carry the struggle for democracy to a successful conclusion, every man who is merely a consumer and not a producer is a menace to the community in which he lives.

"E. B. JANUARY, Mayor.
"W. F. LINK, Chief of Police."

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

Another Conscription Needed.

Quite as important in the world war as the military campaigns of the various belligerents was the starvation campaign of each group in the fighting.

The blockade system of the Allies was tightened gradually in an effort to starve Germany, and in this way force her into peace. It entailed tremendous suffering upon the Teutonic people, food was scarce and we do not doubt but that thousands went hungry in the Kaiser's empire.

The submarine campaign was launched primarily with an idea of starving Great Britain, and this is just as dangerous as the prevention of transportation towards the war-fields of France. Great Britain will not be starved, but food regulations are becoming more and more stringent as ship bottoms become scarcer.

The recent peace between Germany and Ukraine seem to mean that the starvation campaign against the Kaiser has been check-mated. With Russia and Ukraine provision has been made in the last peace arrangements that huge supplies of food will be shipped into Germany, and other countries allied with her. If this is done, there can be no danger of starving them out.

The campaign against Great Britain continues. The submarine is still sinking merchant vessels badly needed, and the question of feeding the British people, supplying our armies in France, and transporting war material to the armies on the western front is becoming more and more vital. The only dependable answer to it is the building of ships—more and more of them than ever before.

The government is calling for carpenters, and other laborers, for the shipyards. It is a call as important as the demand for men between 21 and 30 years for the active military duties. If it is not answered voluntarily, conscription of this labor will, and must, inevitably follow. Let's have no hesitation on this question. If the labor doesn't volunteer, pass a conscription law.

When Things Are New.

A Seattle paper tells of a young fellow from Alaska who has been "seeing the city for the first time." He is twenty-three years old, was born and reared in Alaska, and until the other day when he landed in this country, he had never seen a skyscraper, nor any other building built of brick or concrete. He had never seen a paved street, nor a passenger elevator, nor a drawbridge. He had never attended a vaudeville show, a movie theatre nor eaten in a restaurant where there was a cabaret.

But don't waste your sympathy on this young man. Rather he is to be congratulated. His delight will be greater than any we can know. His interest in life itself will be enhanced beyond what we can hope to reach. To contemplate the things still in store for him, and to recall how few things are in store for the rest of us—well, the young fellow has a tremendous advantage over the fellow who has been brought up in the city.

It is the memory of our first experiences that count, anyway. Our first visit to the circus, our first love affair, our first view of Niagara Falls, or New York City, or anything else strange and startling, it is the first experience that is to be remembered longest and with the greatest pleasure.

We who have grown up and developed in this country, accustomed to these things that are now giving so much interest to the Alaskan boy, can't appreciate what it must mean to behold them for the first time. It must be enchanting, to say the least.

Everyone Can Help.

Are you willing to have better times? If so, talk good times and you may be able to convey the same spirit to some poor despondent mortal. Our manner of business has a great deal to do with the times, for the times, as the expression is commonly used, are very much what we make them. The poor, miserable, hypochondriac is never satisfied. He imagines the whole business world is wrong and is always looking for a panic or some unforeseen evil, and constitutes to a very large measure the growler. There is never any good cheer in his business house, and the very goods on his own shelves bespeak it; when you have dealt with him you feel more like you have attended a funeral than anything else. While on the other hand, we all like to deal with a cheerful, bright, happy, business man; you always feel better after you have met him. This life of ours is full of sunshine and bright spots and all you have to do is to gather it in. It is a free, God-given privilege; therefore, don't shut out the sunlight by burying yourself in a dark and gloomy cave of despondency, but be cheerful, happy and hopeful, and by so doing cast a few bright, cheerful rays of hope in the darkened path of some fellow being.

A Mother's Love.

It is not prosperity, with her smile and beauty, that tries the purity and fervor of a mother's love; it is in the dark and dreary precincts of adversity, amid the cold frowns of an unfeeling world, in poverty and despair, in sickness and in sorrow, that it shines with a brightness beyond mortality, and stifling the secret of its bosom, strives but to pour balm and consolation upon the sufferer, and the cup of misery, filled to overflowing, serves but to bind them more firmly and dearly to each other, as the storms of winter bid the sheltering ivy twine itself more closely around the withering oak. Absence cannot chill a mother's love nor can even vice destroy a mother's kindness. The lowest degradations of human frailty cannot wholly blot out the remembrance of the first found yearnings of your affection, or the faint memorial of primeval innocence; nay, it seems as if the very consciousness of the abject state of her erring child more fully develop the mighty force of that mysterious passion which can forget and forgive all things, and though the youth of her fairest hopes may be an one cast off from God and man, yet she will not forsake him, participate in all things save his wickedness.

Don't Be Inquisitive.

If you know of anyone in this vicinity engaged in Government work, don't ask him to talk about it. Such information as he may have to give out may be perfectly safe with you, but if he gives it, both he and you are taking chances. He has unthinkingly made the work of the German spy all the easier, and you have needlessly increased your own responsibility. It is good loyalty not to want to know anything your Government would rather not have you know. Personally, we want to keep ourselves so that all the German spies ever learn from us will be infinite variety of names we will be able to call the Kaiser and his gang of murderers.

A Sailor Song.

In an unnamed port by an unnamed sea,
There's an unnamed girl who waits for me;
But soon on an unnamed day I'll trip
To this unnamed girl on an unnamed ship,
And then we'll hie to an unnamed spot,
Where an unnamed parson will tie the knot,
And then I'll give her a name, by Jove,
No _____ censor will ever remove.

IF I WERE A FARMER.

If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician such as Chamberlain's Cough and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup.

This would require an outlay of only $1.10. By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in the night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.

Did you ever notice that when you were particularly busy almost every thing bobs up, including the price of living.

THIS FIREMAN'S HARD JOB NOW IS LOT EASIER

Louisville Railroad Man Tells How Tanlac Put His System Back In Shape.

Marshall I. Smith, 1214 South Shelby street, Louisville, Ky., is a locomotive fireman on a run out of Louisville and his job is one which requires a lot of strength and good health. He didn't used to have it and it was hard for him to keep the fires going in his engine, but he says his work is easy since Tanlac put his system back in shape.

"I used to feel so bad that it was hard for me to even climb up onto the engine, and, of course, my work of keeping the fires going in the engine was mighty difficult," Mr. Smith said.

"My system was all out of order. My digestion was bad and my appetite was so poor that I didn't eat much. I didn't sleep well either."

"Well, I started taking Tanlac and it surely did put my system back in good condition. My appetite has come back fine. I eat good now, too, and have gained in strength so much that my firing job is easy for me."

"My wife has suffered from rheumatism for quite a while and is just starting to take Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment."

If you don't feel right take Tanlac and get your system back in shape. Tanlac is purely vegetable. It tones up and invigorates the entire system. Tanlac is just the thing to take this spring. You can get Tanlac at Varden & Son's.

Take Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment for rheumatism. It is helping hundreds of rheumatic sufferers and it will do for you what it is doing for others. You can get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment at Varden & Son's, feb12-16 (adv)

A "CANTEN" IN FRONT LINE.

Hot drink station No. 1 for the American troops is placed at a central point behind the American artillery, within walking distance of the communicating trenches, within firing distance of the German guns and within gas mask distance of the German gas. It is the last point where the soldiers halt going into the trenches and the first coming out.

Here, in a little kitchen tucked beneath unobtrusive walls of sandbags and cement, the Red Cross workers will serve steaming drinks to the mud stained, tired fighters. And at a telephone word from the trenches big Norwegian heaters will be filled with hot bouillon, and two men carrying a heater on a pole will go forward, past the artillery, through the communicating trenches into the front lines.

With the French the American Red Cross has had twenty-five such stations. Sometimes the workers lived in dugouts, often they wore gas masks. One has a dented helmet which makes clear how near he came to "going West." To the poilus more than a million hot rations have been served by the Red Cross front service. The work is hard and long and the hours ungodly.

It is a splendid service for any man not in the army, a man with nerve, energy and intelligence. There is no finer. All preparations have been made to add nine new front kitchens to Station No. 1, and as fast as they are called for and as fast as the kind of men needed for the work are obtained, the service will grow. There is no longer any reason for a man who cannot get into the army to sigh for action. He can get all he wants in the Red Cross front line service.

HANG OUT THE BANNER THIS WEEK!

The Third Liberty Loan campaign is on. The people of Paris are urged to renew their pledge to the country and to their flag. Everyone is to be urged to hang out the flags at their homes and business houses this week.

When the war with Germany was declared one year ago last Saturday Paris (Ky.) was decorated with flags. Nearly every business house and every home in the city displayed a flag of some size. They have entirely disappeared now, and only occasionally is Old Glory seen on a business house or home.

The loyal people of Paris hope that the other people will show their patriotism by hanging out new flags. There is no more patriotic city in America than Paris. Let's show our patriotism by hanging out new flags.

Owing to the condition of my health, I have decided to discontinue business. Same is offered for sale as a whole, or will dismantle equipment and sell in parts.

H. J. GROSCHKE.

I BELIEVE

I believe that I am right in the conclusion that thinking people do not want bargain glasses any more than they would want nature to endow them with a bargain pair of eyes.

My work is, and always will be just as good as I know how to make it. I must give satisfaction in order that my business may grow.

If you will favor me with your patronage, I will see to it that you only pay a fair price and I will also promise you satisfaction, so much so that you will not hesitate to recommend me to your friends who are in need of eye help.

POOR, WEAK BLOOD THE CAUSE OF MOST REJECTIONS IN BOTH THE ARMY AND NAVY

Many Men Might Qualify in Two or Three Weeks If They Would Properly Build Up Their Systems By the Use of An Assimilable Iron.

In the medical tests for admission to the army and navy the condition of the blood is considered of prime importance. All accepted candidates for commission must show a satisfactory "blood pressure" and there must be thorough evidence of both red and white corpuscles, or the candidate is promptly rejected.

Anaemics and weaklings are not wanted by Uncle Sam, as experience has simply demonstrated that men without sufficient rich red blood in their system fail to develop the proper to prove valiant leaders.

Run-down, thin, emaciated creatures are no longer wanted—either in the army or civil life. Men of strong vitality and fully equipped physical power and stamina are now required, whether in the battle of business life or the more hazardous work of leading men "over the top" in the Flandrian trenches.

The human system requires a certain degree of iron to properly replenish the blood and tissues of the body, and the food of modern civilization is such that eighty per cent. of the populace lack the proper amount of this necessary organic sulphate.

Thus we behold a race of prematurely old, bald-headed, false-toothed victims, with begoggled, lack-lustre eyes and faltering step, instead of a sturdy, strong-limbed people—as in the iron-absorbing ages of Caesar and Cæsar and Saxon.

The medical authorities have long been aware of this fact, but lacked the chemical knowledge of how to properly administer this prerequisite of nature. Armed with a non-soluble, unassimilable tincture of inorganic iron in the form of "blaud" pills or a tooth-destroying liquid asstringent, they sought to incorporate into human body a form of iron just about as digestible as a keg of nails.

The total result of their endeavor therefore was invariably a toothless, decrepit victim with a badly-ruined stomach.

Nature, however, came to the rescue and put to shame the greatest chemists in the country.

In a natural mineral product were found all the ingredients necessary to revitalize the blood of mankind, in an easily digestible, fully assimilable form.

At least a purely organic iron had been found!

With thousands of testimonials from all parts of the country, and over thirty years of infallible success as a basis for their claims, the Ferrodine Chemical Corporation unqualifiedly guarantees its product to strengthen, build up and revitalize all those lacking body or nerve force—or to promptly refund the trifling cost of this wonderful revigorator.

A. I. M. is on sale by all reliable druggists. Do not accept any alleged substitutes for A. I. M. as there is nothing else even remotely similar to this remedy on the market.

Messrs. Froehling and Robertson, the famous chemists of Richmond, Va., officially state:

"The combination of the mineral constituents of A. I. M. shows a most valuable preparation. It contains in addition to the large amount of Iron Sulphate, a very desirable quantity of Aluminum Sulphate and smaller amounts of Magnesium and Sodium Sulphate. In our opinion the possibilities for this preparation are unlimited, and while we do not believe in a universal panacea we would expect a marked success by the use of this machine. We would suggest its use in all cases of Anaemia and general debility; and in many if not all stomach troubles."

KENTUCKIANS IN FLORIDA

Although the season is gradually approaching an end for Florida sojourning, many Kentucky people still remain there, and from letters received here, are managing to find a great deal of enjoyment in that sunny climate.

In a letter received a few days ago from Mr. Thomas H. Butler, of Paris, he asks to have THE NEWS changed from St. Petersburg to Anna Maria Beach. Mr. Butler and party are having a good time, as evidenced by a few extracts from his letter:

"Please change my paper from St. Petersburg to Anna Maria Beach, Fla. Doc Marshall, mother and I came down here Friday. This place is five miles below Fort Dade, on the Gulf of Mexico. Doc is performing first-rate for an amateur salt water fisherman. He landed six sea trout this morning, which weighed twenty-five pounds, a mackerel weighing four pounds and several others. I caught my first 'King' yesterday. The fish weighed fifteen pounds. We are going out in the Gulf to-morrow and expect to 'kill 'em. 'Doc' Marshall says he will tell you all about his fishing experiences when he gets home. Anything he tells you in regard to the trip down here I will vouch for. We are all well."

SCHOOL CENSUS OF CITY TAKEN THIS MONTH.

The names of every child in Paris, white and colored, between the ages of six and eighteen, will be taken this month for the school census. The names will be registered regardless of whether the child attends school or not, and the law provides a severe penalty for the failure of the parent to give the names of their children within the school age or any information the census taker may desire.

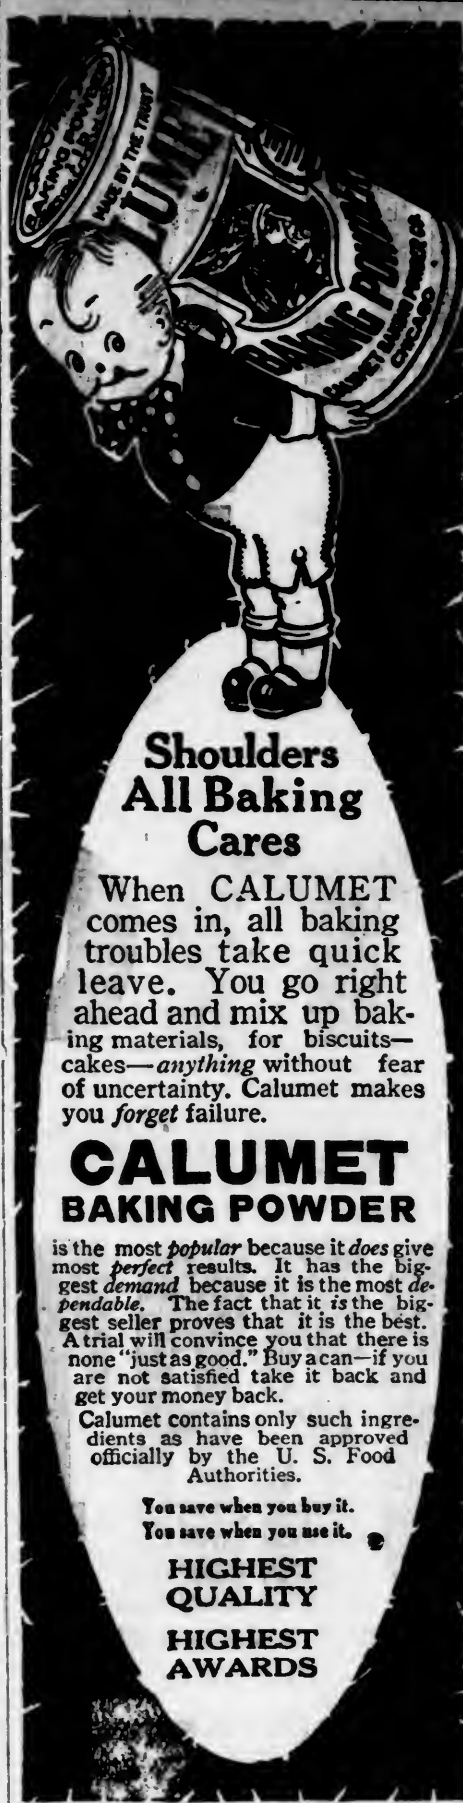

The work of taking the census will be completed about the first of May and it is the expectation of the school authorities that the census will show the largest number of children of the school age in Paris for many years and that there will be a material advantage to the local school in having the census taken. For every child whom the census taker fails to list and whom the parent fails to give, the city will lose in that proportion to the school fund.

The Hon. Mrs. Grahame was a famous beauty of her time, and was considered one of the most beautifully dressed women—so beautiful that Gainesborough required no accessory in his painting.

The proportions of her figure so carefully taken denote that she could have worn this model.

Nature gave her a low bust, and this little model would have held the bust and cunningly indented the waist with that very straight front and back line so much the vogue.

This beautiful model is made of fine batiste. It exquisitely completes the lingerie of the well dressed woman.

ORDINANCE VIOLATORS DISMISSED WITH REPRIMAND

One of the most prominent stockmen in the county, who resides on a fine farm near Little Rock, was placed under arrest here Wednesday on a charge of violating the ordinance prohibiting the driving of stock through the streets without the proper number of attendants.

The stockman, who is a well-known figure in the local market, had driven a big bunch of cattle through the streets, accompanied only by two small negro boys. He was taken before Police Judge Ernest Martin, who dismissed him with a vigorous reprimand, and an injunction to never repeat the offense again. The stockdealer solemnly promised to observe the ordinance in the future.

HONEYMOONERS GO OVER THE SPEED LIMIT.

In an attempt to elude a party of Lexington friends following them in three automobiles, and to make a record run to Cincinnati to spend their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Santen, the latter formerly Miss Alice Benckart, of Lexington, were taken into custody by the police of Georgetown, Tuesday morning, as their car went slashing along Main street in that city.

In the car held by the police besides Mr. and Mrs. Santen were Mr. Fred Benckart, brother of the bride, and Elmer Myers, the chauffeur. Fortunately the pursuing friends from Lexington came up shortly after the police had made the arrest and taken the wedding party in tow, and through their intercessions the young people were released from custody without having to pay a fine.

In gratitude for the deliverance from the minions of the law Mr. and Mrs. Santen stopped in Georgetown long enough to provide refreshments for the pursuers, who, after showering congratulations on the couple, sent them on their way rejoicing. The incident was the occasion of much good-natured merriment, after which the pursuing party returned to Lexington, feeling amply repaid for their frolic.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION TO MEET HERE TO-MORROW

The regular monthly meeting of the Bourbon County Teachers' Association will be held in the office of County School Superintendent of Schools J. B. Caywood, in the court house, to-morrow morning, Saturday, April 13, at ten o'clock.

The teachers will receive their sixth month's salary, and will discuss the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth chapters of "Turner's Learning to Read."

We will have with us Prof. Charles A. Keith, of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School at Richmond, who is at the head of the Civics and History Department. Prof. Keith will deliver an interesting address to the teachers. He has not yet announced his subject, but it will more than likely be something having a distinct bearing on the war. He knows from personal observation every foot of the country over which the big battles are now being fought, and it goes without saying that he will tell us something highly interesting.

I am especially anxious to have a large audience present to greet and hear this distinguished speaker and educator. He is a really "big man," in an intellectual way, and his address will be a literary treat. He is personally known to many of our teachers, and it should need no urging to get them to come out and hear him. But I want to ask and insist on the teachers telling all their friends and patrons of the school, so that they, too, may be able to hear Prof. Keith.

Very sincerely,
J. B. CAYWOOD, Supt. of Schools.

At the conclusion of the program the members of the Society and invited guests were entertained at dinner at the Hotel Lancaster by the members of the Scott County Medical Society.

FREEZING WEATHER AND SNOW VISIT PARIS.

From warm weather to freezing and a light covering of snow was the twenty-four hour record visitation of the weather clerk in this section Wednesday. The mercury dropped to 30 degrees, which is the freezing point.

Although the weather had been a trifle cool Tuesday, our people were not prepared for the sight that greeted them when they arose early Wednesday morning. A light fall of snow covered the ground, the fleecy particles falling intermittently through the day.

Experts say the fruit has not been injured as the cold weather caused the trees to revert to a winter state, and the fruit buds that have come out will not be materially injured. Gardens have not advanced far enough to sustain injury. The wheat crop is also considered safe.

Bourbon county stock dealers have been especially active on a good market recently and a number of good sales have been made. Goff & Rice of near North Middletown, report the following sales of Shorthorn thoroughbreds as good prices:

To Louisville Club, two Shorthorn bulls at $200 each; to the county agent at Owensboro, two Shorthorn bulls for $200 and $225 each; J. W. McLaughlin, of Hillsboro, W. Va., one white bull for $225; Robert Meeter, of Bourbon, one roan bull for $150, and to Clay Galtskill, one red bull for $150.

—Hense Margolen bought of J. R. Butler a bunch of nice hogs, weighing 225 pounds each for seventeen cents per pound, and of Mr. James Estis, of near Clintonville, five 1,600-pound cattle for eleven cents per pound.

MAY TAKE CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS WHEREVER GIVEN

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on March 27, 1918, the President approved a joint resolution of Congress suspending, during the period of the present war, the operation of the provision of law which required applicants for civil service examinations to be examined in the State or Territory in which they reside. During the period of the war, therefore, applicants for any examination held by the Commission may be examined at any place at which the examination is held, regardless of their place of residence.

An act of July 2, 1909, required examinations to be taken in the State of residence. While this provision is suspended for the period of the war, it is still required that only those who have been actually domiciled in the State or Territory in which they reside for at least one year previous to the examination may become eligible for permanent appointment to the apportioned departmental service in Washington, D. C.

The Commission expects this change to make it easier to obtain applicants for positions in Washington. Competent stenographers, typists and bookkeepers are in great demand. Examinations for these positions are held weekly throughout the country. Representatives of the Civil Service Commission at the post-offices in all cities are furnishing detailed information and application blanks.

YOUTHFUL PARIS CARTOONIST TAKES CRACK AT KAISER

Don't think the youth of this city are one bit behind others in their patriotism, for they are "right there," to use a commonplace but very trite expression. They are right up to the dot on world affairs and take as much interest in daily happenings as their elders. Their grasp of world happenings is something to be marveled at, when one considers how their time is taken up in study and in play. A little eight-year-old, Edna Davis, residing on Parrish avenue, has developed a talent for cartooning and versifying that is remarkable. The other day on her way home from school, the little tot produced a piece of chalk and drew a remarkably true likeness of "Kaiser Bill," the arch fiend of Germany, on the side of a big warehouse on Winchester street. Underneath the cartoon she wrote these lines:

"Old Kaiser Bill
Went up the hill
To take a peep at France;
But old Kaiser Bill
Came down the hill
With bullets in his pants."

GOVERNMENT WANTS ARMY OF BOOKKEEPERS.

So urgent is the Government's need for bookkeepers that civil service examinations to fill positions of this character will be held throughout the United States each Tuesday until further notice. Women as well as men are eligible.

Two classes of examinations are announced. A grammar school education or its equivalent is required of applicants for either class, with the further stipulation that those who wish to take the bookkeeper-type-writer examination must have had at least six months' experience in bookkeeping, and those who would undertake the clerk-bookkeeper examination, one year's experience in clerical work, six months of which must have been in bookkeeping. The vacancies to be filled from the register obtained from these examinations are in the departmental service at Washington and offer entrance salaries of $1,000 a year.

These examinations are open not only to all citizens of the United States, but also to subjects of allied nations who are otherwise qualified for the positions offered.

CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL THICK, GLOSSY, WAVY

Try This! All Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed. (adv)

AMERICAN ARMY RIFLES SUPERIOR TO GERMAN.

American troops are armed with a faster firing and more accurate rifle than used by the Germans, according to our expert designers, manufacturers, and marksmen, says a statement by the Bureau of Ordnance. One military critic and writer claims the German Mauser does not permit the most skilled user to get more than 50 per cent. of the firing speed of the modified Enfield adopted for the United States service.

The superiority claimed for the American weapon is supported on three counts: Quicker firing as a result of bolt-handle design, easier and quicker sighting as a result of sight design, greater accuracy of bullet flight resulting from bullet design and greater mechanical accuracy of chamber and bore.

FOR LIBERTY BONDS.

Surely no citizen of Paris or Bourbon county will need urging to make our local Liberty Loan drive a success. The war is coming too close to us for any one to profess ignorance, lack of interest or ill-timed pacifist tendencies. The more money the Government has, the better your boy and our boy and the other man's boy and your neighbor's boy will be taken care of. It matters not what city or county he may be from, he is a member of the great family of American youths who are now or soon will be fighting for liberty of the world, and if it comes down to a question of mere locality, let us do our part.

You will be making a splendid, non-taxable investment in the purchase of a Liberty Bond. The drive is on here and elsewhere, but it is our duty to uphold the reputation that Paris and Bourbon county gained in the other two and make the Third Liberty Loan drive one ever to be remembered.

LET'S WIN ONE FOR PARIS

BLANCHE SLOCUM TELLS OF EXPERIENCE IN GERMANY.

Miss Blanche Slocum, grand opera soprano and a portage of Mary Garden, has returned to Oak Park, near Chicago, after four and a half years in Germany.

"Here I am," she said, "the last American out of Germany. German officials objected to my leaving, and I virtually was a prisoner for weeks. I suppose they thought I might tell things. I certainly shall. For the Germany I left is a Germany very different from the one described in recent books and magazine articles. It has changed since their authors were there. It is hungrier—much hungrier. Besides, it is mutinous.

"Germans—German soldiers even—told me they wanted to see Germany loose the war, they hate the government so. I saw a number of small riots. People shouted, 'Down with the war! Down with the government!'

"Before the war only the poor sided with the Social Democrats; now the rich frequently do. All classes are inwardly rebellious. The government knows. In Berlin here were notices posted up offering 3,000 marks reward for evidence leading to the conviction of anyone speaking against the government. The proclamation concluded with:

"Sad to say, these spies are not foreigners only, but are often found among those wearing the field gray." "Except that the German people are frightened, hunted hounds, there would have been a revolution before this.

"They are half starved. They grumble continually. Germany was never so wretched as now, never so gloomy, never so eager for peace, even though peace should mean surrender."

When America broke off diplomatic relations with Germany Miss Slocum was under engagement to sing Senta in "Der Fliegende Holländer" and Burnhilde in "Die Walkure." The director of a Berlin opera house begged her to stay, but this became impossible after our declaration of war.

THE PRICE OF SHAMEFUL PEACE

More than a billion dollars of American agricultural exports were sold to the European nations at war with Germany during 1917. Had this Nation maintained peace at the price of obedience to the German war zone decree, this European market would have been closed and this billion dollars worth of agricultural products would, most of them, have rotted on farms and in warehouses, or been used in unprofitable ways with consequent stagnation and ruin to the American farmers.

Interest as well as duty urges the American farmer to give financial support to his Government in this war.

Ritchie, who is a son of Mr. K. I. Ritchie, formerly of this county, had been on a visit to friends and relatives in this county for several weeks. On the day he concluded his visit to his old home, an elopement was framed up and successfully carried out, the young woman meeting Ritchie by arrangement in Cincinnati, and proceeding with him to Chicago, where the marriage took place. SAN ANTONIO PAPER COMPLEMENTS PARIS PASTOR.

THE NEWS is in receipt of a marked copy of The San Antonio, Texas, Daily Express of Saturday, April 6, sent by Mr. W. S. Gillispie, containing a complimentary reference to a lecture delivered at the Y. W. C. A. in that city, on "The Kentucky Mountaineer," by Rev. George R. Combs, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. Rev. Combs has been assisting in a revival at the San Antonio church, and was solicited by a large number to give his lecture. The Express says:

"Dr. G. R. Combs, of Paris, Ky., delivered his lecture, 'The Kentucky Mountaineer,' at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium Monday evening to an appreciative audience. At times the lecture was punctuated with the tragic and serious as the speaker touched upon the famous and widely known feuds which were so prevalent in the mountains of certain counties of that State for so many generations. Then again he veritably swept his audience along with him as he portrayed so vividly the joyous side of the mountaineer's life; his log rollings, his corn shuckings and his festive occasions.

"One of the most interesting and entertaining parts of his lecture-recital was the use of the banjo to present the manner of the mountain people as seen in their music, particularly that music which is of a light and joyous vein, even sometimes reaching the stage of the 'quick and devilish.'

"Dr. Combs is a native of Breathitt county, Kentucky, one of the most noted feud counties, and many members of his family fell in the feuds first and last. He knows his mountain people, and is well prepared to give a picture of them to the world in their true light.

"He is planning a tour of the North and East for Chautauqua work this summer. He has been booked for this lecture in a series of three at Chautauqua, N. Y., the latter part of July. While in this city he gave two evenings of fun and entertainment to the Kelly Field men."

While in San Antonio, Rev. Combs had a rather unpleasant experience, having been mistaken by an army guard for a spy while visiting at Camp Kelly, where he delivered his lecture to the army men. Some time after leaving the platform, Rev. Combs was strolling about the grounds, taking kodak views of the cantonment, which is mainly an aviation camp. He was taken in charge by a guard and sent to camp headquarters. Rev. Combs was able to produce proof showing he was a minister, and that he was a thoroughly patriotic American citizen and far removed from being a spy. He was released with a warning not to indulge in kodaking in an army camp in the future, as it is strictly prohibited everywhere.

Corporals Guard R. H. Donovan, of Massachusetts, was the cadet who took Rev. Combs in charge and conducted him to the military police headquarters. When he discovered who it was he had apprehended he apologized very humbly. "You needn't apologize," replied Rev. Combs, "nothing has happened to me in many a day that has brought me more real pleasure. It has shown me that the military authorities are more careful then I thought, and, personally, I would be glad if they were even more strict than they now are."
